

CLEAN SLATE

pedagogic palimpsest

polished landscapes

green/black boards

sea

chalky

birds

erasures

a tide

of a million words

a language

evaluated

calculated

equated

broad strokes

felt beneath

a brush

encroach the darker edges of a choppy shored line

yellow dust

scatters sunlight across a dappled surface...

spreads disembodied knowing

into shallow memories

under the sweep

of a wave

chaotic random thoughts

lapping

collect in a stream of conscious undoing

shifting sands

forming limestone deposits in the catch tray.
