

News

Study Day: Everything You Ever Wanted to Know About Journals (but were afraid to ask)

© 2006 EBLIP. This is an Open Access article distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0>), which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited.

The UK NHS South West Workforce Development Confederation's Knowledge Resources Development Unit presents:

"Everything You Ever Wanted to Know About Journals (but were afraid to ask)"

Journals are an essential building block in every library service, but what do you really know about how they are put together?

At this study day, a variety of speakers will give the benefit of their knowledge about the world of journal publishing. Delegates will be actively encouraged to arrive armed with queries, ask questions, and pick the collective brain.

Speakers include:

- Alison Brett, Associate Editor, Evidence Based Library and Information Practice

- Sally Marchant, Editor, MIDIRS Midwifery Digest
- Jayne Bailey, Editorial Manager, Journal of Psychopharmacology

Date: Thursday 2nd November 2006
10.30am-3.30pm
Registration / coffee 10am
Course commences 10.30am

Venue: CST Tutorial Room, UBHT Education Centre, Upper Maudlin Street, Bristol, BS2 8AE

Enquiries to John Loy, Learning Resources Manager, Avon and Wiltshire Mental Health Partnership NHS Trust:
John.Loy@awp.nhs.uk