

News

CILIP Training and Development Courses

© 2008. This is an Open Access article distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0>), which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited.

Develop new skills and expertise through CILIP Training and Development. Courses cover such topics as cat and class, copyright, library and information management skills, marketing and management and personal development. Courses running soon are:

Reflective Practice for Library and Information Staff

Identify the personal and organizational benefits to be gained from reflective practice.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/persdev/reflectivepractice.htm>>

How to Construct a Thesaurus

Make informed decisions about thesaurus designs that will enhance the quality of your subject data.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/catandclass/howtoconstructathesaurus.htm>>

Librarian as Consultant

Understand the high level aspects of your role and develop the skills to improve confidence and credibility.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/mp/librarianasaconsultant.htm>>

Supporting Looked After Children

Explore the reading and information needs of looked-after children and the role of libraries in supporting them.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/libinfo/supportinglookedafterchildren.htm>>

Moving On in MARC 21: Computer and Web Resources

Focus on bibliographic description and develop a greater depth of knowledge by exploring AACR2 alongside MARC format requirements.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/catandclass/movingonmarccomputerweb.htm>>

Copyright Compliance: Policies and Risk Management

Identify high, medium and low risk activities and learn the practical steps to stay within the law.

FULL DETAILS:

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/copylic/copyrightcompliance.htm>>

Dewey: A Beginner's Guide

Covers all aspects of Dewey, from basic navigation of the scheme and simple number allocation to the building of complex notation.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/catandclass/dewey.htm>>

Introduction to Competitive Intelligence

Gain a good overview of CI including business frameworks, non-published sources and legal/ethical issues.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/mp/Introductioncompetitiveintelligence.htm>>

Leading Others Through Change

Join other senior professionals and managers who are planning or implementing change.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/md/leadingothersthroughchange.htm>>

Evidence Based Healthcare on the Web

Cut through the maze of medical/healthcare information and focus on the solid evidence-based sources freely available on the web.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/libinfo/evidencebasedhealthcare.htm>>

Handling Enquiries Remotely: Effective Enquiry Answering by Phone and E-mail

Manage communications effectively and minimize the risk of misunderstandings that happen when an enquirer can't see or hear you.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/libinfo/evidencebasedhealthcare.htm>>

WEB 2.0: Building on the Basics

Explore ways in which web 2.0 applications not only promote your information centre, but provide a richness and depth of information to your users.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/ict/Web20buildingonthebasics.htm>>

Finding and Understanding Market Research Information

Identify and evaluate major market research publishers and discover how to use Government, trade and other organizations as a source.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/libinfo/findingmarketinformation.htm>>

Teaching Legal Research Skills

Explore the different evaluation methods to improve the effectiveness of your teaching sessions.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/tl/teachinglegalresearch.htm>>

Negotiating Licenses

Gain a better understanding of licence agreements, the terms and conditions and the challenges involved in contract negotiation.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/copylic/negotiatinglicences.htm>>

Metadata in an E-learning Environment

Improve your management of e-learning resources and learn how to create strategies for improving retrieval.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/catandclass/metadainanelearningenvironment.htm>>

Furthering Your Management Skills

Identify your strengths for teamwork and leadership and broaden your understanding of team dynamics.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/md/furtheringmanagementskills.htm>>

Going Beyond Google

Understand Google's limitations and explore the 'invisible web', subject gateways and virtual libraries.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/ict/goingbeyondgoogle.htm>>

Repackaging Your Research: Adding Value to Your Answers

Learn how to present visually attractive and well expressed answers that add real value to your service.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/libinfo/repackagingresearch.htm>>

Cataloguing and Classification

An introduction to the skills of information organization, understanding the principles involved in AACR2, Dewey and MARC.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/catandclass/catandclass.htm>>

Critical Appraisal Skills for Healthcare Librarians: the Basics

Designed to give you the skills to critically evaluate research papers and interpret their findings.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/libinfo/criticalappraisalskills.htm>>

Essential Skills for Library and Information Staff

Ideal for those who are new to working in a library or information service, covering the core skills needed in your role.

<<http://www.cilip.org.uk/training/training/2008/libinfo/essentialskills.htm>>

All CILIP members receive up to 40% discount on all CILIP training courses. You can get in touch with training team by calling 020 7255 0560 or e-mail: <training@cilip.org.uk>.