

News/Announcements

Registration for the C-EBLIP Fall Symposium 2015: Librarians as Researchers is now open!

© 2015. This is an Open Access article distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons-Attribution-Noncommercial-Share Alike License 4.0 International (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>), which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly attributed, not used for commercial purposes, and, if transformed, the resulting work is redistributed under the same or similar license to this one.

---

The C-EBLIP Fall Symposium is a one-day conference coming up on Wednesday, October 14, 2015 at the University of Saskatchewan (with complimentary registration) open to any interested librarian. It is designed to facilitate sharing, collaboration, and networking with the focus on librarians in their researcher roles. New this year, a pre-symposium research workshop, entitled Transforming Ideas into Well-Designed Research Questions, will be presented by the University Library's Researcher in Residence, Selinda Berg, on October 13, 2015. Please note that spaces are limited for the workshop.

University of Regina librarian and researcher Cara Bradley will be giving the opening keynote address entitled Let's Give Them Something to Talk About: Sharing Librarians' Research beyond Professional Boundaries. You can find the rest of the schedule at a glance here: <http://library.usask.ca/ceblip/c-ebliip-fall-symposium/symposium-program.php>

You can access the online registration form here: <http://library.usask.ca/ceblip/c-ebliip-fall-symposium/registration.php>

Save your space now and plan to join us at the Centre for Evidence Based Library and Information Practice, University Library, University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon this fall.