Save the date! The 9th International Evidence Based Librarianship & Practice (EBLIP9) conference will be held June 18-21, 2017 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania USA. This gathering will emphasize evidence-based practice in libraries with pre-conference workshops, presentations, and networking opportunities. The conference host is Drexel University which has a long tradition of practical training, civic engagement, and academic technology leadership. Calls for participation for program sessions and pre-conference workshops, will go out in the coming months. Keep abreast of the latest EBLIP9 news via the conference twitter account: @eblip9 or the conference website: <http://libguides.library.drexel.edu/EBLIP9>

If you have questions about this upcoming conference or potential ideas for pre-conference workshops, please contact John Wiggins, co-chair of the local organizing committee at eblip9@drexel.edu
