

News

Canadian Network for Innovation in Education International Conference

© 2008. This is an Open Access article distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0>), which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited.

Mark your calendars for the 2nd Annual Canadian Network for Innovation in Education (CNIE) International Conference 2009, to be held in Ottawa, ON, from 10 May 2009 – 13 May 2009. This exciting event will be hosted by the Canadian Healthcare Association (CHA).

Theme

Learning and Technology: A Capital Idea!

Conference Streams

- Building Effective Learning Environments: Innovations in Instructional Design and Course Development
- The Prescription for Learning: Integrating Educational Technology into the Health System
- Breaking Learning Barriers: New Technology and Media Applications to Create Accessible Learning
- K to 12 Innovation: Engaging the Digital Learner
- Transforming Education: constructing a Student Centered World with Open Learning and Distance Education

- Leading the Way: Effective Policies, Partnerships and Administrative Practices

With an expected attendance of over 400 national and international delegates working in the fields of educational technology, health education, K-12 education, multi-media design, and distance learning, the 2009 CNIE International Conference offers a unique opportunity for learning, networking and idea exchange.

For more information, please visit the 2009 CNIE International Conference website <<http://www.learningconference.ca/>>.