EBLIP6 is fast approaching. We hope you will be able to join us 27th to 30th June at the University of Salford, Salford, Greater Manchester, U.K. We have an exciting programme with pre-conference workshops, over 50 confirmed paper presentations, four keynotes, posters, and three “madness sessions” where delegates, poster presenters and sponsors have an opportunity to address the audience for one minute!

Social events include an evening reception in the local museum and art gallery and the conference dinner will be held at Old Trafford Football Stadium (home of Manchester United - an impressive venue, even for non football fans!).

For those who cannot make it to the event, we are hoping to make a limited part of the conference available online interactively. Registration opens on March 1st 2011, with early bird rates until April 15th. We look forward to seeing you soon!
