

Evaluation of the Long-Term Impact of a Curriculum-Integrated Medical Information Literacy Program/S. Maranda, B. Harding, and L. Kinderman

Appendix 1: Pre-test Fall 2012 (administered online)

1. Please select the correct definition for the acronym. PICO is:
  - a) Patient Intensive Care Outcome
  - b) Patient Integrated Centred Outcome
  - c) Patient Information Centred Outcome
  - d) Patient Intervention Comparison Outcome
2. To find recent articles on the occurrence of AIDS in children, the most specific search would be performed in:
  - a) Cochrane Database of Systematic Reviews
  - b) Medline/PubMed database
  - c) BMJ Best Practice
  - d) Journal of Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndromes
3. You need to find articles in the Medline database about safety measures and devices when managing AIDS and HIV positive patients. Choose the best search strategy:
  - a) (safety and safety devices) and (AIDS and HIV)
  - b) (safety or safety devices) and (AIDS and HIV)
  - c) (safety or safety devices)and (AIDS or HIV)
  - d) (safety and safety devices) and (AIDS or HIV)
4. How can the MeSH headings help you create an efficient search in Medline?
  - a) Medical Subject headings are assigned to all articles added to Medline
  - b) The National Library of Medicine's MeSH vocabulary is sensitive and hierarchical
  - c) Articles retrieved with MeSH headings include all vocabulary alternatives
  - d) Articles retrieved with MeSH headings are medically appropriate
5. At her next visit, your middle aged patient comes with a printout of a website on arthritis where it is recommended to use glucosamine as an effective alternative therapy. Which criteria do you use to evaluate this website in order to have a meaningful conversation with your patient?
  - a) Relevance, Purpose, Credits, Accuracy
  - b) Accuracy, Authority, Relevance, Purpose
  - c) Appearance, Authority, Currency, Purpose
  - d) Purpose, Rank, Authority, Accuracy