

Past Imperfect: A journal dedicated to student scholarship in History

Past Imperfect, the journal of the History Graduate Students Association at the University of Alberta, is published once a year. It is edited by students and funded by the HGSA and the Department of History at the University of Alberta. Grant support has been provided by the University of Alberta's Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in America: History and Life and Historical Abstracts.

Editor: Philip Massolin

Associate editor: Theodore Binnema

Members of the editorial board:

Dr. David C. Johnson, Dr. D.J. Moss, Dr. D.R. Owram.

Subscriptions to Past Imperfect are $10.00 per year (subject to change). Cheques should be made payable to Past Imperfect (U of A).

Past Imperfect publishes articles on any historical topic submitted by active post-secondary students in Canada. All submissions are refereed by two or more scholars with relevant expertise. Manuscripts should be 15 to 30 pages long and should be accompanied by an abstract of approximately 100 words. They should be submitted in triplicate and, whenever possible, on an MS-DOS formatted disk in WordPerfect or in another major format convertible to WordPerfect. Manuscripts should be double-spaced with endnotes or footnotes. Authorship should appear only on a separate title page.

All correspondence should be sent to the editors at

Past Imperfect
2-28 Tory Building
University of Alberta
Edmonton, Alberta
T6G 2H4
FAX (403) 492-9125
E-mail: tbinnema@gpu.srv.ualberta.ca

Past Imperfect disclaims responsibility for statements, either of fact or opinion, made by contributors.

Cover photo: Coleman, Alberta (1984) by T. Binnema, computer scanned by Michael Hawkins.

ISSN 1192-1315