

Past Imperfect: A journal dedicated to student scholarship in history.

Past Imperfect, the journal of the History and Classics Graduate Students' Association (HCGSA) at the University of Alberta, is published once a year. It is edited by students and funded by the HCGSA and the Department of History and Classics at the University of Alberta. Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted in America: History and Life and Historical Abstracts.

Co-Editors: Douglas Bailie, Robynne Rogers Healey

Associate Editors: Tracy Pelland

Members of the Editorial Board:

Dr. John-Paul Himka

Dr. David Mills

Dr. D.J. Moss

Dr. D.R. O'ram

Subscriptions are $12.50 per year. Cheques should be made payable to: Past Imperfect (U of A).

Past Imperfect publishes articles on any historical topic submitted by active post-secondary students. All submissions are refereed by two or more scholars with relevant expertise. Manuscripts should be 15 to 30 pages long and should be accompanied by an abstract of approximately 100-150 words. They should be submitted in triplicate and, whenever possible, on an MS-DOS formatted disk in MS Word, Wordperfect, or in another major format convertible to MS Word or WordPerfect. Manuscripts should be double-spaced with endnotes or footnotes. Style should conform to the latest edition of either The Chicago Manual of Style or Kate Turabian's A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations. Authorship should appear only on a separate title page.
